NOTES

*Dominican Republic: The "Constitutionalist Government" reportedly is ready to sign a slightly altered OAS solution, according to Hector Garcia Godoy. Godoy told US officials that yesterday the rebels held a long and heated meeting at which the Act of Reconciliation was rammed through by more moderate elements over the objection of Cury and Aristy. The act as agreed to by the rebels was to be presented late yesterday to the leaders of the Dominican Armed Forces for their approval.

25X1

Kashmir: The sudden decision of the UN secretary general to send Ralph Bunche to Kashmir last week end apparently caught both India and Pakistan by surprise. Bunche told a US official that the primary purpose was to 'find out whether the Pakistanis were prepared to stop.' He also intends to go on to New Delhi to discuss the Indian seizure of Pakistani outposts in the Kargil area. The Pakistanis will probably try to seize this opportunity to engage the UN in a review of the whole question of Kashmir's status.
